

SC-125-A - Horse Skeleton
Order code: 4007.SC125A

Information about product price on demand

Parameters

Quantitative unit

ks

This male specimen was a large retired police horse. Horses have played an important role in human culture since their domestication. The importance of the joints in permitting movement, absorbing shock and bearing weight is clearly illustrated with our skeleton.

The rearing stance pictured here is an example of the custom mounting work that is available at an additional cost for all of our skeletons. For custom prices, please inquire.